Wizard Also Scores With Fred Gebhard's Pulsus in the Handicap-Four First Choices Go Down to Defeat at Sheeps head Bay-Headmaster's Steeplechase

Vesterday's racing at Sheepshead Bay was another hard proposition for the form players, as four favorites went by the board. Practically the only lifesaver was John E. Madden's Waterside, who won the Autumn Stakes, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, Futurity course. Waterside was a hot favorite at 13 to 10, but John W. Schorr's Jack Lory was heavily played at 8 to 5 to beat him. From the end of the first furlong Waterside was master of the situation, O'Neill bringing him home a handy winner by a length in 1:12 3-5. Jack Lory, however, did not run up to expecta-tions, for James M. Laughlin's Pasadena, 1, ridden by Hildebrand, beat him ength and a half for the place in a sharp Col. Madden put another winner over the plate in the handicap at a mile and a quarter. when Fred debhard's high priced Pulsus trained by "The Wizard," led all the way and won handily by a length and a half in 2:06. Pulsus carried only 97 pounds, and, with Willie Davis up, he was well played at the last moment at 11 to 2. E. R. Thomas's Cloverland, the favorite, went back from even money to 6 to 5, as there was a heavy but fruitless plunge on Major Daingerfield who was backed down from 5 to 1 to 18 to 5 While Pulsus never relinquished the lead Marmee, another lightweight, clung to him and finished in the place three lengths in front of Cloverland, who was shut in on the backstretch. Dekaber was jammed on the rail near the far turn and dropped out of it. A heap of money was wagered on Flam mula, 13 to 5 favorite, in the first race, at a mile, with apprentice jockeys up, but she had no speed and was disgracefully beaten. E. E. Smathers's Dick Bernard, 14 to 5, on the other hand, came home on the bit, with six lengths to spare, in the good time of 1:39 Brooklynite closed strongly and got the place from Letola, 4 to 1, by half a length. The latter was in front for nearly three quarters of a mile, but weakened when the winner challenged.

The Oakdale Cup steeplechase was a farce. There were only two starters, Headmaster and Cock Robin, ridden by the gentlemen jockeys Mr. Stone and Mr. Mather spectively. Headmaster, a 1 to 3 favorite, quickly took the lead and won by a quarter of a mile in 5:22 2-5. Cock Robin, who bled from the nose a greater part of the route, came home spattered with gore. He should have been pulled up.

Big money was lost on the Paget entry, My Buela and Floralia, 9 to 5 favorites in the fifth race, for maiden two-year-olds, at dve and a half furlongs. Futurity course Neither finished in the money. H. B. Duryea's Bulwark, 11 to 5, got a rather weak ride from Hildebrand, who went to the whip too late. Lindsay Gordon, backed down to 8 to 1, after being in front from the start lasted long enough to beat Bulwark a neck in 1:07 3-5. H. M. Ziegier's Navajo, played down to 6 to 1, after getting away next to lust ran a great race and was third, six lengths back. and a head before Cœur de Leon, a 50 to 1

In the last race, at a mile and three-sixteenths on the turf, Leader, the favorite, never had a chance, Shaw having him in a pocket most of the way. Allan, 30 to 1, set the pace for nearly a mile, when Eagle, 8 to 1, passed him and won by three lengths, in 2:00 3-5. Allan was second, the same distance before Lady Potentate, who was lowered FIRST RACE.

AUTO CUP RACE.

Fresh Entries Bring Total to Thirteen-Important Details Settled.

A great international automobile race for the Vanderbilt cup is now assured of being held in Long Island on Oct. 8. Entries by cable, mail and telegraph have been coming in rapidly of late, and yesterday, after a meeting of the directors of the American Automobile Association, it was officially announced that thirteen bona fide entries were in hand, Of these, four are American made cars and nine are of foreign manufacture. Although nothing was officially given out, it was known that there are two more entries of American cars pledged which are expected to be formally entered to-day.

The meeting of the A. A. A. directors yester day was one at which many important details of the race were settled. The big road con-test occupied chiefly the whole time of the meeting. Because of the activity of the Automobile Club of America in the interests of automobilists at large, Secretary S. M. Butler of the club handed in his resignation as chairman of the racing board of the American Automobile Association. The vacancy will be filled later. After the meeting of the directors, Chairman. A. R. Pardington of the racing board announced that the entries American cars, four-two sixty horsepower White steamers, one to be driven by Webb Jay and the other by Rollin White: one sixty horse-power Pope-Toledo, entered by Orlando Weber, to be driven by A. C. Webb one thirty-six horse-power Royal, entered by C. A. Duerr, to be driven by Joseph Tracy. French cars, four-three of the Panhard of ninety-horse-power, one to be driven by George D. Heath, an American, and winner of the Circuit Ardennes; a second to be driven by Mr. Tart and the third by a driver not yet nominated. The fourth car, a Clement eighty horse-power to be driven by A. Clement German cars, three, all Mercedes of sixty horse-power—one entered by S. B. Stevens, to be driven by himself, a second entered by George Arents, Jr., to be driven by Carl Mensel, and the third, entered by Clarence Gray Dinsmore, to be driven by G. Worden Italian cars, two both Fiats of ninety horse power—one entered by A. G. Vanderbilt, to be driven by Paul Sartori; the second entered by William Wallace and the driver not named.

It is understood that assurance was given

It is understood that assurance was given yesterday that Frank H. Croker would enter an American made S. & M. Simplex and that C. M. Schmidt would enter the record holding Packard "Gray Wolf."

The entries for the gace close to-morrow. The necessary sanction for the race has been obtained and the course is now being especially policed to prevent practice speeding. The racing board was authorized yesterday to proceed with the erection of a grand stand to seat 400 at the starting point of the race at the pump at Westbury. The course is 30.40 miles in length and the contestants will pass the grand stand nine times and finish there. Ten private boxes are to be on the stand and five were subscribed for at the meeting yesterday at $50 each, Chairman Pardington said that not only each.

Chairman Pardington said that not only will any competitor caught speeding on the course between now and the time of the race be disqualified, but that at a conference with Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., it was agreed that should any casualty occur on the course due to speeding the race will be called off.

The allotment of numbers for the contestants and their time of starting will be made at the Automobile Club of America on the evening of Oct. 1. The contestants will be started at three minute intervals. There will be two "controls" on the course, one of three minutes and one of six minutes, at Hicksville and Hempstead, respectively. The racing board of the A. A. A. Will have its headquarters at the Garden City Hotel from Oct. 5 to 8 inclusive. One hundred and twenty-five special officers will be employed to police the course and all crossroads will be closed by means of posts and wire fencing. The timing of the race will be done by the Chronograph Club of Boston.

Before adjourning the A. A. A. directors approved the sanction given by its touring committee to the non-stop-of-the-motor record made by F. A. LaRoche to St. Louis and back. cn. Chairman Pardington said that not only

JOCKEY RAYNOR'S NARROW ES-

CAPE FROM FATAL INJURY. Thrown Into the Fence While Riding Dekaber, the Boy's Leg Is Badly Sprained Cock Robin Bleeds in Steeplechase

-Riley Grannan Kills a Favorite. Jockey Raynor had a narrow escape from fatal injury in the fourth race yesterday. He had the leg up on H. B. Durham's mare Dekaber, who was backed sufficiently to drop in price from tens to sevens. Dekaber was next to the rail and rushing along with the bunch, when suddenly she was crowded to the fence and Raynor pulled her up to escape being thrown into the infield. When the jockey had passed the judges' stand it was seen that his left knee had been severely Dekaber's near forefoot at the hee was cut, too, and she was otherwise bruised. Raynor was so weak that he was lifted from the saddle and carried to the paddock, where two surgeons decided that his legwas onlysprained, not broken. The stewards immediately began an investigation as to the cause of the accident, but there were so many conflicting statements that they were unable to reach a decision. Raynor said he did not know persons who were near the scene of the ac-Major Daingerfield, was the one responsible Martin denied the accusation and there the matter rested. Rough riding of this kind has been prevalent all the year on the metropolitan tracks, and several boys have been punished. But the evil will continue until some flagrant offenders are set down for a long period. Raynor, who recently came from the West, will not be able to ride again for two weeks.

Many spectators were shocked when they saw Cock Robin running in the steeplechase with blood pouring from his nostrils. His shoulders and legs were covered with crim-son and Mr. Mathers's riding breeches were well spattered. Yet this gentleman rider ing up. Whether he knew that Cock Robin was bleeding or not nobody was able to say, but it was rather strange that he did not notice it. The spectacle was not relished by the more humane onlookers in the grand Things have been rather quiet lately among the owners of selling platers, but the old war broke out afresh yesterday. When E. E. Smathers's Dick Bernard won the first race, for which he was entered to be sold for $1,700, Jack McGinnis, who ran second with Brooklynite, boosted the figures to $3,000 on the first bid, whereupon Trainer Frank Taylor protected the colt with an extra $5 raise. McGinnis got half the amount of the run-up on $650. Mr. Smathers origi-nally paid $8,000 for Dick Bernard a year ago last winter. James Blute, who seems to be anxious to bid up all good horses these days, got into the game when Eagle, running in the name of the Patchogue Stable, won the last race. Eagle, who is really owned by Billy Dubois, the clubhouse bookmaker, was entered to be sold for the small sum of $900 and Blute bid him up to $1,500 without delay. Trainer Billings retained the gelding with the customary $5 raise, J. W. Colt, who ran second with Allan, getting $300 as a result. Altogether this was hard luck for Dubois, who did not bet on Eagle, as he did not think he could win with the apprentice Kunz in the saddle.

McGinnis started Brooklynite in two races. The Ornament colt in each instance was ridden by Notter. He ran second in the first race. McGinnis playing him both ways, but he was unplaced in the last event.

"What with apprentice jockeys who cannot ride," said a pessimist before the day's sport began, "and gentlemen jockeys who only think they can ride, what chance has a bettor got playing the first two races?"

Drake and Gates won a big bet on Water-side in the Autumn Stakes. Their agents went the rounds offering the layers all kinds of money and getting down about $20,000 at 6 to 5 and 18 to 10. They dropped some of their winnings on Cloverland and a heavy chunk on Bulwark. E. R. Thomas did not have a very successful efternoon. He had a large commission in Cloverland and also backed Lady Potentate for a bunch. Riley Grannan, who is making book, won heavily over the defeat of the Paget fillies, My Buela and Floralia in the fifth race. Gran-nan, with a long haired individual at his place and held out Bulwark. In the space of five minutes he took in close to $75,000 on the Paget pair, quoting even money a place long after the other books had chalked up 4 to 5. A $1,000 wager on this latter proposition finally made Grannan rub.

John E. Madden had a good bet on Waterside and cleaned up pretty thoroughly with Pulsus. It was said that his commission on Pulsus was placed by men unknown to the layers. It did not go on until the odds had gone up to 6 to 1, when there was a lively cutting of prices all around.

A well known bookmaker had a warm argunent in the paddock during the afternoon with two prominent plungers. The layer had a claim of $2,500 against them which he wanted to have settled immediately. The who denied all knowledge of such a bet, but the layer insisted that the wager had been made and showed his sheet to prove the assertion. The matter was finally compro-

at 6 to 1, to win the handicap, but Pulsus was too much for the filly. The heavy play on Major Daingerfield was surprising in view of his recent poor races. It was said that fully $25,000 was placed on the Handspring horses were sold at auction Lindsay Gordon was knocked down to A. C. McCafferty. The colt ran in the fifth race yesterday in the name of Fred Burlew, Bennington's trainer, and his victory enabled Burlew and his friends to scorch the books as the odds fell from by Huron-New Era, had gotten away from the post in front he might have won the fifth race. Those who had the colt up their sleeves got their money down at 6 to 1, although some of the books offered 30 to 1, but refused to take any bets at those odds. Navajo got away next to last in a field of twenty starters and had a rough journey, yet he managed to get inside the money. He will bear watching.

The clubhouse speculators had a tip on him down from 25 to 1 to twelves. The Monnever able to extricate him. Joe Yeager's Irascible was well backed across the board, but was outrun from the start. A woman got into an argument with the man who handles the grandstand messe ngers over a $5 bet made on Handzarra on Monday. She said a messenger told her after the race that she had bet on Blucher instead of the Western filly to show.

"I can give you no satisfaction," said the mogul, with a sneer. "It is a question whether you bet on Handzarra at that." "Very well, then," replied the woman.

"But I want you to understand that I'll get my $5 back, if I have to carry the matter to the Jockey Club! So there, now!" J. E. Follansbee's Rochampton has been little Bathampton horse, who was a consistent winner as a three-year-old, pulled up on the verge of a breakdown. He had en patched up several times, so that his condition warranted a withdrawal from further races.

The Autumn Stakes was first run in 1880 when Bonnie Lizzie and Brambaletta ran a when Bohme Mizzle and Brambaletta fan a dead heat. After that the winners were: Memento, Barnes, Sister, Natalie, Preciosa, Firenze, Emperor of Norfolk, Fresno, Mag-nate. WORLD'S RECORD FOR DANIELS. New York A. C. Man Beats German to 220 Yard Swimming Champie

ST. Louis, Sept. 6.—Foreign swimmers again held the centre of the stage at the second day's session of the Olympic swimming championships contested at the world's fai to-day, and of the three events that were contested for the championship title Hungary and dermany each won one, the third honor going to Daniels of the New York A. C. The competition was remarkable for the speed shown by the men who competed. even among those who were unplaced, for in one event especially the men who quali-fied in one trial heat, that of the fifty yard wim, broke the American record for the Four men responded to the call for the 220 yards championship, they being Rausch of Jermany Gaily of San Francisco, Adams start was perfect. Adams, who entered the event in order to fill it out, was soon distanced. The 110 yards was covered in 1 minute 10 sec ond, which in itself is better than Ruberl's record. Danjels had immediately gone to the front, followed by Rausch, with Gailey third. When the men squared away for the last lap Daniels had a lead of a yard. with Rausch a yard in front of Gaily. As the swimmers passed the 175 yard mark Dan iels spurted and opened a lead of three yards while Gaily succeeded in catching and passing Rausch. Daniels held his lead to the finish, while Rausch closed on Gally the finish, while Rausoh closed on Gally, but was unable to catch the American, and had to be content with third place. The time, 2 minutes 44 1-5 seconds, is faster than the American record of 2 minutes 50 4-5 seconds, held by E. Carroll Schaeffer, made at Buffalo, N. Y., July 8, 1901, and also faster than the world's record of 2 minutes 46 seconds made by David Billington, at Norwood Park Lake, London, England, Aug. 9, 1902. Both these records, however, were made on a straighthaway course.

PRINCE ALERT BEHIND RECORD. Pacer Fails Twice at State Fair-Devereux Outdrives Smathers.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 6 .- The New York State Fair race meeting was continued to-day under excellent weather and track conditions. The card included an attempt by Prince Alert to beat his own pacing record without windshield of 1:58%. In the second heat of the 2:05 pace. Snow with Locanda nosed out John M. at the wire in 2:03%, equalling the season's record for pacing stallions. Prince attempt in 0:29% and the half in 0:58% broke a hopple and wept to a break. In another trial, he made a break on the backstretch trial, he made a break on the backstretch and finished the mile in only 2:05%. There were several amateur events on the card which were closely contested. In the second heat of the free-for-all pace, H. K. Devereux with C. K. & Billings's Prince Direct, went to the half in 1:01% and after the hardest kind of a drive in the stretch won the heat and race from E. E. Smathers with Sphinx S. GAME.

It was a finished product of baseball that was played by the New York Americans yesterday afternoon. There were at once smoothness and strength, speed and skill, baseball of the very best kind, in fact, and the combination of virtues enabled the New Yorks to give the Philadelphias two drubbings. The excellent fielding of Griffith's men was done behind good pitching, and it supplemented the bunching of hits. Both of the New York pitchers kept the Philadelphia hits widely scattered, and in both games the New Yorks bunched hits to good advantage. Jim McGuire made his reentry into the arena as a catcher after a long layoff, and his throwing to bases was very injurious to Philadelphia's chances. What with his throwing and Elberfeld's knack of blocking off runners, base stealing was a poor industry. The New Yorks did much better in this regard.

Rube Waddell was an in-and-outer in the first game. He struck out fourteen men, some of his victims having no more idea
of, where the ball was coming than blind men;
but for results Orth was a better pitcher than Waddell. No two of Philadelphia's bits were made in one inning. The New Yorks bunched five of their seven hits in the third and fourth innings. Hartsel led off with a hit, but could not get around, and double plays killed the Keystone crew in the second and fourth innings.

The New Yorks made good use of the hit and run device. It brought no results in the first inning after Anderson and Keeler

and fourth innings.

The New Yorks made good use of the hit and run device. It brought no results in the first inning after Anderson and Keeler had worked it nicely, but bore fruit in the third. Orth struck out four times, the first time in this inning. Dougherty had a better eye, and walked. As he broke for second Keeler hit safely to right, Pat reaching third. Elberfeld hit safely through short when M. Cross ran over to stop Keeler's steal, and Dougherty scored. Anderson hit to Davis, who threw badly to second to head off Elberfeld, and Keeler scored. Williams brought in two more runs with a three-bagger to the left field fence.

Dougherty scored in the fourth inning. He lined the ball to right, and by splendid running went all the way around. Lave Cross's three-bagger and a fly to right gave the Philadelphias a run in the seventh. In the ninth the sun, which shone down from a "high" sky, caused Keeler to misjudge Seybold's clout, and the batter took three bases. He scored on an out at first. The score:

—SECOND GAME.

Griffith and Heniey had a pitchers' battle in the second game, and the former excelled. Two of the four hits made by the visitors were out and out scratches. The Philadelphias by poor base running and New York's smartness fell victims to a double play out of the ordinary in the first inning. Hartsel went to first on four balls and to third on a wild pitch. Pickering filed to Williams. Davis hit to Elberfeld and Hartsel was caught at the plate. Davis, meanwhile, was jogging leisurely to second, and was an easy victim of McUnire's throw after the latter had touched Hartsel out. It was a stupid play of Mctiuire's throw after the latter had touched Hartsel out. It was a stupid play on the Philadelphian's part.

Anderson won the game for New York in the fourth inning. Dougherty beat out a grounder to M. Cross, Keeler sacrificed and Elberfeld flied to Seybold. Then Anderson hit past Seybold for a home run.

Griffith pulled out of a dilemma in the fifth. It. Cross's scratch hit, a base on balls and a sacrifice put men on third and second with one out. Two pop-ups followed, one to Elberfeld and one a foul to McGuire. Hartsel outfooted a grounder to Conroy in the ninth. History repeated itself, and he once more scotted to third on a wild pitch. He came in on an infield out. The score:

NEW YORE (N. L.), 8; BOSTON (N. L.), 7.

Hard hitting and a good deal of it was done at the Polo Grounds yesterday, the New Yorks winning in the tenth inning. The Bostons tied the score after being six runs behind, but the New Yorks proved the better stayers. Their good fighting qualities came into play when the battle waxed hot. McGinnity was buffeted with great freedom by his adversaries, but the New Yorks were some active with the wagon tongues themselves, and they fielded and ran bases better than the New Englanders.

The New Yorks made four runs in the first inning. Moran's wild throw, McGann's single, a hit by pitched-ball of which Mertes was the target, Dahlen's single and steal and Gilbert's double gave them the quartet of counts. The Bostons scored in the second on hits by Delehanty and Moran. Bowerman was safe in the fourth on Moran's fumble. He stole second and scored on Bresnahan's double. Browne singled, scoring Bresnahan. McGann singled and got around on Abbatichios's fumble and wild throw.

Tenney was hit by a pitched ball in the sixth, Cooley singled and Moran cleaned up with a home run. The Bostons went at McGinnity with equal spirit in the seventh. There were singles by Fisher, Abbaticchio and Cooley, a base on balls to Tenney and a two-baser by Delehanty, and the gross receipts from the expenditure of swipe were three runs and a tied score. Then McGinnity braced and prevented further scoring.

In businesslike fashion the New Yorks finished up the job in the tenth. Bowerman McGinnity and Browne all hit safely and hard, Browne's hit sending Bowerman home. Manager McGraw, who was hurt in the crush the day before, saw the game from the clubhouse. He drove to the grounds in a cab, and when not in the cab used crutches as an aid to locomotion. The score:
